

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

Frequently Asked Questions

UG Admission 2020

Q 1. Is there a single form for UG merit and entrance based courses?

A. Yes, the candidates can register for both merit based and entrance based courses using a single online registration form. In the entrance tab if the applicant selects 'YES' for entrance based courses then the applicant is applying for both merit based and selected entrance based courses.

If the applicant selects 'NO' in the entrance tab then the applicant only applies for all the merit based courses.

Q 2. The registration form has no option for filling the choices for merit based courses-colleges, how do I apply for merit based courses and what will be admission process?

A. The candidate doesn't have to choose the course college at this moment for merit based courses but it has to be done at the time of declaration of cut-offs. This means that the student registering on the admission portal shall be considered for all merit based courses for all colleges, but admission will be granted in a particular course-college, subject to the eligibility.

Q 3. I forgot to apply for entrance based courses while filling the admission registration form, what should I do?

A. After payment, the admission registration form is not editable so the applicant has to apply in a fresh form again with a new email and pay the registration fees again.

Q 4. I applied for DUJAT and gave my preferences for the colleges and submitted the form by paying the registration fees, but now I want to edit the preferences, can I do so?

A. The applicant cannot edit the preferences right now but candidates will be given a chance later after declaration of entrance(DUJAT) result.

Q 5. Can I apply for sports and ECA quota both in the same form?

A. Yes, the applicant can apply for both sports and ECA quota in the same form.

Q 6. I have studied additional language in Class XII but as result is not declared so I do not have marks for the additional language but the portal is asking for its marks, what should I do?

A. The applicant can fill it with "0" (ZERO) and complete the form. It will not affect the eligibility of the applicant.

Q 7. Can I self-attest my mark sheet using Digi Locker app?

A. Yes, you can self-attest your mark-sheet using Digi Locker app.

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

Frequently Asked Questions

UG Admission 2020

Q 8. I forgot to self-attest my mark sheet during the registration process, will my form be valid or should I apply again?

A. The candidate must show the utmost care while uploading the documents as the documents need to be properly scanned and self-attested. But, if by mistake the candidate forgets to self-attest the documents, then there is no need to apply again. The candidate will be eligible for the admission process, as long as the documents uploaded are valid.

Q 9. My class XII result has not been declared so should I fill the registration form now or wait for the result?

A. You need to register yourself on the UG Admission Portal on or before July 4, 2020, and select results awaited. Once your result is declared then you can upload your marks on the admission portal but registration is compulsory right now.

Q 10. Is there any reservation for students who are residents of Delhi?

A. No, the University of Delhi does not provide any such reservation to the residents of Delhi.

Q 11. Where can I find information related to the best four evaluations for different courses in the Bulletin of Information?

A. The information on the best four and the subjects to be included in Best Four for different courses is given in Section 2 of the Bulletin of Information.

Q 12. How can I apply for admission to B. Ed., LLB, and Bachelor of Library and Information Science?

A. As these are master courses, you can apply for admission to these courses in the PG admission portal 2020 on the University of Delhi website du.ac.in.

Q 13. Will I get the benefit of my School NCC certificate in the calculation of Best Four?

A. No, you will not get any benefit from the NCC certificate in the calculation of Best Four. If you are applying under ECA category with NCC as you ECA, then you will get the relaxation in the cutoff based on the particular course and college seat availability.

Q 14. If I do not meet the first cutoff, then will I have to apply again for second cutoffs and so on?

A. No, you do not need to apply again for the second cutoff. However, you need to apply again for the course or college you want in a particular cutoff if you meet the cutoff.

Q 15. Does the University of Delhi provide reservations to Jain applicants?

A. No, there is no reservation for Jain applicants.

Q 16. Does the University of Delhi provide admission in B.Sc. (H) Biotechnology?

A. No, the University of Delhi does not provide admission in B.Sc. Biotechnology but the subject Biotechnology is used to determine eligibility criteria for various B.Sc. courses.

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

Frequently Asked Questions

UG Admission 2020

Q 17. What should be the validity of my OBC certificate?

A. The applicant applying under any category should have the caste certificate (in this case OBC non-creamy layer certificate) of the current financial year, that is issued on or after 31st March 2020.

Q 18. How and when will the entrance based examinations be conducted?

A. Amidst the Covid-19 situations, nothing can be commented at this point. Once the University takes any decision regarding the conduct of examinations, it will be notified through the website. The applicants are requested to keep on checking the website regularly.

Q 19. How will the cutoffs for courses be decided since examinations for class 12th have not yet been conducted?

A. The cutoffs for colleges will be decided only after class 12th examinations are conducted and their results are declared. The applicants are requested to keep on checking the website regularly.

Q 20. How can I apply for admission to St. Stephens College/Jesus and Mary College?

A. These colleges have their own registration forms which require the applicant to fill the registration number of their University of Delhi registration. So the applicant should first fill the common form on the admission portal on the website, then visit the website of these colleges and wait for notifications regarding their registration process. Further process of registration will happen on their website.

Q 21. Is Mathematics a compulsory subject to be included in Best Four for B.A.(H) Economics?

A. The applicant must have studied and passed Mathematics at the qualifying examination for admission to B.A. (H) Economics. The merit shall be determined on the basis of one language and three best academic/elective subjects as specified in List A and List B.

Q 22. I have filled the registration form twice and paid the fees twice as my previous form was wrongly filled. Is there a way to cancel a form and refund fee?

A. The candidate is requested to exercise extreme care in filling the registration forms and paying the registration fee since it will not be refunded in any case once the form is submitted.

Q 23. I have a subject in my class 12th with a different name than that mentioned in the Lists in Bulletin. What should I do?

A. You can write a mail to us on our helpdesk email at undergraduate2020@admissions.du.ac.in. The equivalence for the particular subject will be sent to the HOD of the colleges, and we will let you know if that subject stands eligible for calculation of cutoff.

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI
Frequently Asked Questions
UG Admission 2020

Q 24. Can I apply for foreign language courses besides the main graduation course? If yes, how?

A. Yes, the candidate can apply for a diploma in foreign language courses along with their graduation course. For this, you need to visit the website of the particular college you want to take admission to the course in.

Q 25. What will be the dates for the entrance tests for entrance based courses?

A. A detailed schedule will be out soon, kindly keep on checking the University of Delhi Website.

Q 26. What will be the syllabus and pattern for the Entrance Exam?

A. Detailed syllabus and pattern for entrance exam is given in the bulletin of information.